

This is the State's reformatory institution for colored girls who are committed to it by Courts and Magistrates.

Maryland School for Boys, Frederick Avenue Extended, Baltimore—Receives from State for maintenance, $20,000 and $12,500 for buildings for 1909 and $20,000 for maintenance for 1910. The manner of receiving inmates into the Maryland School for Boys shall be in either of the following modes, namely: First, white male minors may be committed by a Justice of the Peace for any of the counties, or the city of Baltimore, on complaint and due proof made to him by the parent, guardian or next friend of such minor, that, by reason of incorrigible or vicious conduct, such minor has rendered his control beyond the power of such parent, guardian or next friend, and made it manifestly requisite, that from regard for the morals and future welfare of such minor, and the peace and order of society, he should be placed under the guardianship of the Maryland School for Boys; second, white male minors may be committed by the authority aforesaid, when complaint and due proof have been made that such minor is a proper subject for the guardianship of the Maryland School for Boys, in consequence of vagrancy, or of incorrigible or vicious conduct, and that from the moral depravity or otherwise of the parent, guardian or next friend, in whose custody such minor may be, such parent, guardian or next friend is incapable or unwilling to exercise the proper care and discipline over such incorrigible or vicious minor; third, such white male children as their parents, guardian or friends may desire to place therein for temporary restraint and discipline, and whose parents, guardians or friends shall agree and contract with the managers for their support and maintenance; and fourth, white male minors committed by the several courts in this State, as provided in this article. The institution receives and cares for boys sent from the counties. The city of Baltimore pays $140.00 per capita yearly for the board and education of city boys. This obtained on quarterly statements of the number of boys reported to the City Treasurer. All correspondence may be addressed to the Superintendent, Maryland School for Boys, Baltimore, Md., Station D.

St. Joseph's House of Industry, Charles and Twenty-Eighth Streets, Baltimore—Address the institution. Receives from State, $3,000 for 1909 and $3,000 for 1910. It is the object of this institution to teach some useful occupation to those entrusted to its care. It receives children from fourteen to sixteen years of age, either committed to it or upon the recommendation of reputable persons, and is purely charitable, no charge being made for those for whom it cares.

St. Mary's Industrial School, Station D, Baltimore—Receives from State, $20,000 for 1909 and $20,000 for 1910. Also $12,500 for buildings. The object of this institution is to provide a home, education and industrial training for orphans, destitute or incorrigible boys, and to reform juveniles. Boys between the ages of ten and sixteen are admitted. Any Court or Justice may commit youthful offenders to the school. Apply to Brother Dominic, Superintendent.

Universal Progressive School for Orphan and Destitute Children of Baltimore, 1132 Pennsylvania Avenue, Baltimore—Receives from State, $250 for 1909 and $250 for 1910. The Universal Progressive School is a home for orphan and destitute colored children, as well as a reformatory for those who are incorrigible. There are no charges for admission, the inmates being committed there mainly by the Judges and Justices of the State exercising criminal jurisdiction. Address all communications to George W. West, President, 1132 Pennsylvania Avenue, Baltimore, Md.
